Achievement Award Winners Announced

Twenty-eight Monterey and Seaside high school students have received Bank of America Achievement Awards, principals of the two schools have announced.

Top winners will represent each school in competition for cash awards ranging up to $1,000.

At Monterey High, Michael Paul Wolff received a plaque as top winner in the field of liberal arts. Jacqueline R. Cederwall took top honors in fine arts and Kathryn Rose Clausen won the plaque in vocational arts. No winner was named in the science and mathematics field.

Plaque winners at Seaside High included Joseph Moreau, science and mathematics; Donna Taboyayon, in liberal arts; Cathy Chambers, in fine arts and Teresa McClellan, in vocational arts.

The seven students will be eligible to compete in zone competition in Monterey on March 22. There, a panel of civic, business and professional leaders will interview students. Winners will be chosen on the basis of scholastic records, extracurricular activities and the interviews.

The four top zone winners will advance to area finals where cash awards for winners will range from $250 to $1,000. Second, third and fourth place winners in the zone competition will receive $100, $75 and $50 awards, respectively.

Eleven Monterey High students were cited for outstanding performances in specific fields of study and will get certificates of merit. The students and their fields of study include: Rosann Virginia Martinez, art; Kim Christopher Bowersox, drama; Teresa Teru Tobulo, music; Nicholas Alexis Koreisha, English; Harold Craig Manson, foreign languages; Sharon Rena Ullman, social studies; Scott Kinya Satow, laboratory science; Peter William Gumaer, mathematics; Jonina Sutter, business; Mayumi Mona Ueno, home economics and Robert David Maxwell Jr., trades and industrial.

Ten Seaside High students will receive certificates of merit for outstanding performances in their fields. The students and their fields of study include: Mary Doyle, art; Lorence Honda, music; Willie Reddic, English; Alfonso Mitchell, foreign languages; Patricia Bates, social studies; Erik Jardstrom, laboratory science; Daniel Breaud, mathematics; Deborah Quintos, business; Bernice Jacobs, home economics and George Barker, trade and industrial. No certificate was awarded for drama.

At both schools, students were chosen by a committee of faculty members.

The awards are given annually "to recognize and honor outstanding seniors whose scholastic attainment, sense of civic responsibility and evidence of leadership give most promise and future success and service to society," according to the bank. The award program is also designed "to stimulate and encourage high school students in their academic, vocational and citizenship training."

Investment Seminar Scheduled

Fred E. Diulus, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of SPQR Limited, a San Francisco based registered Investment Adviser, will conduct an investment seminar for active and retired military personnel today (Thursday) at 7:30 p.m. in the Holiday Inn, Monterey.

Diulus, an authority on no-load mutual fund investments is, at 30, one of the youngest men in the nation to head a mutual fund or an advisory service. He is a graduate of Florida State University and received his MBA from Golden Gate College in San Francisco. He is also Chairman of the board of American Patriots Fund, a no-load mutual fund offered exclusively to members of the armed services, retirees and their families.

"Very little is being done to help the military man or woman gain financial security," according to Diulus, a former Air Force Captain and Vietnam veteran. Diulus goes on to state that, "through our seminar program, we hope to assist interested investors in achieving their financial goals, especially where it counts 15 or 20 years from now."

Special guests include Frank H. Rile, Captain USN (Ret.), President of American Patriots Fund and directors George W. Dunaway, Sergeant Major of the Army (Ret.) and Delbert D. Black, the first Master Chief Petty Officer of the Navy (Ret.).

Persons interested in attending should contact SPQR Limited in San Francisco. Attendance to the seminar will be limited, due to space, to reservation holders and guests. The number is 415-937-9300.

Hospital Services Will Be Temporarily Reduced

Several normal Ft. Ord Hospital services will be curtailed temporarily as personnel and equipment are trasferred from the present hospital to the new Silas B. Hays Hospital on Giggling Road.

Though present plans call for the new facility to open officially on March 5, authorities indicate that it will not be 100 percent ship-shape before March 21.

No elective surgery will be performed through March 21. Routine outpatient clinic appointments will stop at the old hospital February 28 and be resumed at the new facility March 12. Cases requiring immediate medical attention will of course be seen. However, indiciduals must call the clinic concerned before coming to the hospital.

The Emergency Treatment Room (ETR) at the old hospital will receive patients after March 5 at 7 a.m. The ETR at the Hays hospital will receive patients after 7 a.m. March 5. Hospital authorities urge that visits to the ETR be limited to legitmate emergencies. This will enable the staff to move to the new hospital with the minimum of difficulty during the March 4-5 weekend.

Hospital patients will not be allowed visitors March 5 because they themselves will be in the process of moving to the new hospital.

Hospital authorities ask for the cooperation of the entire community to help make this move an orderly one. Community cooperation will insure that the new modern Silas B. Hays Hospital will be able to take on the burden of caring for the sick in a smooth and expeditious manner and reach operational level as soon as possible.

High School Jazz Band Competition On June 3

The Monterey Jazz Festival, in cooperation with Monterey Peninsula College and the National Association of Jazz Educators, will sponsor the second annual California Honor High School Jazz Band Competition, at Monterey Peninsula College, June 3.

Jimmy Lyons, founder and general manager of the Monterey Jazz Festival, said "All of us involved in the first competition last year were so tremendously gratified by its success that the board of directors of the Jazz Festival decided to allocate funds to sponsor a second high school competition."

The winning high school band will again be invited to perform at the Monterey Jazz Festival, scheduled this year for September 15, 16, 17. Last year's Outstanding Band was from Ygnacio Valley High School. It performed during the Saturday afternoon concert of the 1971 Monterey Jazz Festival.

In addition to naming the winning band, judges will also select outstanding individual musicians, who comprise an all-star band which will also perform at the Monterey Jazz Festival as last year. This band will receive an all-expense week in Monterey where it will be rehearsed by various outstanding professional jazz artists.

Ten high school bands will be selected this year to compete at Monterey Peninsula College, along with five smaller jazz ensembles.

To be considered for the competition, a band must have earned a superior first division rating at a regional stage band festival; submit an audition tape to the festival audition committee by May 5. The audition tape should be ten to fifteen minutes in length and include three numbers.

In addition to the opportunity to perform at the famed Monterey Jazz Festival, outstanding individual performers will again be offered scholarships for summer jazz clinics.

Additional information is available by contacting California Honor High School Jazz Band Competition, Dr. Herb Patnoe, Festival Chairman, De Anza College, Cupertino, California 95014, or P.O. Box JAZZ Monterey, California, 93940.

Ecology Poem WillBe Shown

"Suzanne's Lament," a multi-media tone poem on ecology, will be presented at Monterey Peninsula College tomorrow (Friday) in Lecture Forum 103.

Produced by the University of Massachusetts' Coastal Research Center, the presentation consists of over 300 color slides set to contemporary music. Most of the slides were taken during a field study to investigate the southeastern shoreline of Alaska. The purpose of the study was to correlate findings on the Alaskan coast with those from earlier studies done on the New England coast, which is believed to have been in a state similar to that of Alaska's several thousand years ago.

While in Alaska, the researchers observed the natural beauty of a still rugged land and became acutely aware of man's abuse of his environment. Many of their experiences and reactions to what they saw and felt while in the field are recorded in "Suzanne's Lament."

The showing at MPC is sponsored by the Community Services Office and the geology department. The program will be presented twice-at 3 p.m. and at 7:30 p.m. Admission to each of the performances will be 50 cents.

Chamber Subsidy Renewed

The Seaside Chamber of Commerce at its recent meeting voted unanimously to continue its $1000-a-month subsidy to the Seaside Chamber of Commerce for another four months.

The decision of the council came after a progress report on the efforts of the chamber to increase membership was delivered by James Wester, newly-elected president of the group. Wester tole the council that a special October membership drive netted 21 new members and a large number of new prospective members is now within reach.

Wester also told the council members that the chamber has started a drive with the ness." About 2,500 bunper stickers have been printed with the motto.

The chamber, Wester also announced, has adopted a new dues structure based on business license fees.

The $1000 subsidy has been in effect since last September, when the council voted to increase its support of the chamber for a 6-month trial period. Before then, the chamber was given $300 a month for information services and $6000 a year for its annual Fourth of July parade.

The new agreement took effect when the chamber hired private firm to help rebuild a sagging membership, boost its income and plan a wide range of promotional, research and other services.

Vercoe Wants Debate

A fifty dollar reward is being offered for a U.S. Congressman in Monterey County.

Democratic Congressional Candidate Mel Vercoe of Monterey has announced he will pay fifty dollars to the first person able to bring in the incumbent Republican Congressman, Burt Talcott, alive and unharmed and willing to debate crucial issues with Mr. Vercoe before a gathering of ordinary citizens and taxpayers who may ask questions.

Addressing an audience in Salinas on February 18, Vercoe said, "Voters should have a right to compare incumbent officials face to face with candidates who may replace them, and besides, I'd like to ask some questions myself. For example, why does Mr. Talcott tell us he has consistently opposed subsidies for farmers, when his voting record very clearly shows that he has not only voted in support of farm subsidies, but has also voted against placing limits on subsidies?"

Vercoe is the only candidate so far to file against Talcott in the 12th Congressional District.

The Monterey Peninsula College Gymnasium was packed to capacity Friday evening February 18, 1972. The students and faculty members brought their friends to hear Dick Gregory who has been barnstorming from campus to campus making speeches to the young people trying to make them aware of their power at the polls, among other things.

Gregory has always been tops in keeping his audience alive. He began by telling why he hadn't and wouldn't eat until the hostilities of the Far East were settled. He said that if the war would end as he was making his speech he would simply say "'Bye y'all", and make it to the nearest eatery. "The hardest thing about a fast," said Dick, "is the eaters. They always ask 'How you feel?' or 'Or are you hungry?'" He added, "Your friends believe you're going to die. They act strange. No more loans....." He mentioned one time he fell asleep on a friend's couch and his friend got scared.

His top weight was 288 pounds. Now he is down to 99 pounds. The thing that surprised him, he said, was that he got down so small that his back pockets changed places. And it is embarrasing for him to do his shopping in the children's department. He now uses tea bags for underwear. He gave a plug for his new album "Dick Gregory at Kent University"

Ord Firemen Finish Sixth

Fort Ord's Fire Department finished sixth in the Military Division of the annual National Fire Protection Association's Fire Prevention Contest.

Fifty-six facilities competed in this division and the winner was Rocky Mountain Arsenal in Colorado. Fort Ord has annually finished one-two in the ratings and fire authorities at Ford Ord although pleased to have finished as high as they did were disappointed they did not snare top honors.

Several fires on Fort Ord still under investigation may have influenced the judges although no official announcement has been made indicating these fires caused the sixth place finish.

The Fire Chief noted that Ord had finished ahead of 50 installations in its division.

The Fire Association is dedicated to promote the science and improve the methods of fire protection and prevention; to obtain and circulate information on these subjects and to secure the co-operation of its members and the public in establishing proper safeguards against loss of life and property by fire.

Landlords Must Give 30 Days Notice

Rent Stabilization Regulations published in the December 30, 1971 Federal Register require landlords to give tenants at least 30 days notice prior to any proposed rent increase according to Mr. R. F. Harless, District Director of the Internal Revenue Service for Northern California.

Harless explained that this notification must be made in writing. The notice must include the rental price both before and after the proposed increase, the percentage and amount of the proposed increase and the effective date of the proposed increase. It also has to show the base rent and explain both the method by which the base rent was determined and method of computation of the ing identification of units involved and dates and amounts of transactions where applicable.

This notification must also show the amount, if any, of the proposed increase attributable to capital improvements, state and local real estate taxes and state and local fees, levies and charges for all municipal charges except gas and electricity.

The following statements are also required in the notification:

"You have the right to examine the documentation which supports this proposed rent increase in order to satisfy yourself that the proposed rent increase is in accordance with the rent regulations prescribed by the Price Commission. This documentation is located at (location) and may be inspected upon request between the hours of (specify times and days of the week).

"If you do not understand the basis for this increase or believe that the increase is not allowable under the rent regulations of the Price Commission, advise us and we will arrange a meeting with you at a location convenient to your residence to discuss the proposed increase and explain its justification.

"It is hereby declared under the penalties of perjury that the foregoing statements and facts are true to the best of my (our) knowledge and belief; and that the increase in your rent is not in violation of the Economic Stabilization Regulations."

The regulations allow tenants to question increases and to require the landlord to provide documentation to support the proposed increase.

The burden of proof of notification is placed upon the landlord. If any method other than the mail is used to deliver the notice, a receipt must be obtained from the tenant or his designated agent.

Harless advised landlords to use registered or certified mail for record keeping purposes to avoid any problems that might arise regarding the date of notification.

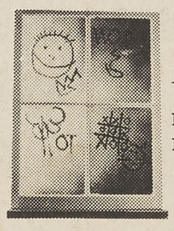
Cold winter...higher bills...
Here's why:

It gets darker earlier and that means more lighting.



You stay inside more and use more heat.

You cook more hot meals on cold days.

Your TV and stereo get more use.

It all adds up to bigger PG&E bills during winter months.

Today's Army NEWS By Sgt. Jose Garcia

U.S. ARMY RECRUITER

TODAY'S ARMY has taken a page from the British Army's manual of operations by initiating a new program designed to personalize recruiting across the Nation. Called the Hometown Recruiter Assistant Plan, it will team young soldiers with experienced Army recruiters to tell their communities about TODAY'S ARMY career opportunities.

These "Assistant Recruiters" are being chosen from volunteers who are high school graduates and regular Army members of the Artillery, Armor or Infantry branches.

It gives me great pleasure to welcome Sergeant Carnell Edwards, a Seaside resident, to our recruiting team. Sgt. Edwards is a member of the 212th Artillery Group stationed at Fort Lewis, Washington and will be on the Peninsula for two weeks to promote enlistments for the 212th.

The 212th Artillery Group option is open to young men that meet the physical and written requirements for enlistment in the combat arms. If they are selected and choose to serve in TODAY'S ARMY with the 212th they are assured sixteen months of stabilized duty at the Northwest Post.

So if you would like to do your thing as a member of the "King of Battle" give us a call at 372-4742 or stop by 431 Webster Street in Monterey and Sgt. Edwards will let you know what it takes to be a cannoneer.

THAT'S IT FOR NOW.

New Play Opening In Carmel

"USA" is an exciting cavalcade of America during the first third of the 20th century. The multimedia production presents the story of J. Ward Moorehouse, who is born on the fourth of July, falls in love with a beautiful rich girl and works his way to the top of the heap.

Inter-woven with this story are headlines, dances, songs, and celebrities of the period. Delightful vignettes of Henry Ford, Rudolph Valentino, Eugene V. Debs, the Wright Brothers, Isadora Duncan, the suffragettes and so on flash through the piece and give it life and color.

The style is cabaret. The actors never leave the stage and play several roles, while slides and pictures play along the walls of the theatre. Old and favorite dances and musicals, such as The Black Bottom, The Grizzly Bear, Alexander's Ragtime Band, Naughty Marietta and many others, come to life during the course of the evening.

The production opens March 3 and will run through April 1. Reservations may be made by calling 624-2669 or 624-9446. Tickets are $3 for adults, $1.75 for students & enlisted men. Group rates are available.

and his new book "Dick Greogry's Political Primer". Then he got down to his speech.

In one point of his speech he mentioned the May Day Demonstration in Washington, D.C. where 7,000 people were sent to jail on "Sit-Down" charges. And in a 4-day period 13,800 people were charged. Of those charged, 99.9% were of draft age. He reminded the audience that no Senator's son had ever been killed in the war. Also no millionaire's son had ever been killed. He said that if he was of draft age and he received his notice, he would go straight to Washinton, D.C. and request to be sent to the front line "with a rich kid. Don't send me," he continued, "to the front line with no poor kid." "If the draft age was 75," he said, "the old folks would have been sitting in front of that bridge on May Day." He reminded the "young folks" that for the 1st time in history they have a chance to say "Never again will you decide where I'm gonna die". Under the law of self-preservation, the young folks are now challenging the old folks. The young folks are trying to stop the war and the old folks "don't understand the demonstrations". Let the young folks try to stop alcohol - the old folks would burn the country down. He said this present situation is a fight between the "five o'clock cocktail and the twenty-four hour life".

A very good illustration of the "punishment fit the crime" clause, was when Dick Gregory said, at the May Day Demonstration the people were arrested for blocking traffic. But in New York last year, the bridge attendants raised all the bridges and walked off the job. Traffic was blocked. No one was arrested. "The reason was the difference", he said.

I could go on and on for at least a couple hours repeating what was said last Friday Night at MPC Gym. One good point (among others) that was brought out was when he got on the subject of "pot". You don't have to smoke pot or drink alcohol to get high. He reminded the young people that the old people will all be gone some day but the young people will be here for a long time to come. And these "conditions should keep you high".

He said to "get out and vote. If you can elect - you can select."

After the Dick Gregory "gathering" and I was home, I picked up a book of Satirical Writings of Kurt Tucholsky. The book is titled "What If - ?". There is a section called - Fulfillment - I think may interest some of you. I shall quote: "The watering of draft horses that have pulled a heavy load - that is what I like to watch. There they stand, with dripping hides; their tails twitch feebly, their heads droop, and one pushes aside the other that is drinking. Then the second horse drinks, and the first looks around contentedly, with water running from its mouth in long threads..... That is beautiful. Why is that beautiful?

Because it is fulfilled satisfaction, something very rare. It is a legitimate desire, wages worked for, necessity, with a refreshing dash of kindness in it. And it hurts no one. It is beautiful when horses are being watered.

There is also some joy at human superiority in it - that it is a human being that gives them to drink. If, for example, they drink from a running brook, the picture loses something of the delight with which the first one fills us. As a species we are probably very vain.

And then too, it is beautiful because horses can't talk. When a thirsty, sweaty worker comes up to the bar and says, "A large beer! What a scorcher," he drinks, and it is hardly a treat to watch him. Why it is like that with horses, of all creatures, I don't know. One feels good if one feels good in front of them. A gentle wave of love of animals wells up in you. But this is deceptive.

For afterwards, if the team of horses does not move fast enough, we are angry and we give them the whip. If for once we don't happen to be cruel, we are quick to believe that we are good."

Your Social Security

I have heard it is a good idea to check your social security record as mistakes could be made. How can I do this? I am a long way from retirement age.

We suggest you check your record every three years at least. This way you can make certain your earnings were reported under your proper name, correct social security number and for the right amount. If you will telephone our office, we will mail you a postcard form to send to Baltimore, Maryland, which is the headquarters for all the social security records. You can verify your earnings as reported to social security and if there is a mistake, you should let us know as soon as possible. It is equally important to keep your own records so you can compare them with the recrods social security has maintained.

What advantage is there to a working wife building up her own Social Security protection?

For one thing, she will not have to wait until her husband retires to get her benefits. She can take her retirements benefits as early as age 62 -- whether or not her husband is drawing benegits at the time. Benefits to a dependen wife cannot start until the husband is on the Social Security benefit rolls. Another point--a woman getting her own benefit will be paid even though her husband goes back to work full or part-time. All or some of the benefits of a dependent wife may be withheld when her husband goes to work, depending on the amount of his earnings and how steadily he works. A working wife, in addition to retirement income, is building valuable Social Security protection for herself and her family in the event that she becomes disabled or dies. The children of a woman worker can qualify for monthly payments if their mother should die--payments that continue at least until they are 18 and up until 22 if they remain in school and are unmarried. Disability benefits also can be paid to a woman worker and to her dependets. These survivors and disability benefits are payable whether or not the husband and father is living in the same household and contribuiting to the support of the family.

As I See It

By Mel Vercoe

Dick Gregory says he weighs 99 pounds and he was supposed to have been a 280 pound weakling before he started his fast as a protest against the Vietnam war. Speaking to a group of about 900 people at MPC, Mr. Gregory touched on a wide variety of topics and may I suggest that unless you have natural built-in padding bring along a cushion to sit on when you attend a function at the MPC gym and choose to sit on the bleacker benches.

But, back to Mr. Gregory, he had two main themes - the idocy of having our lives controlled and maybe taken away by incompetent old men in Washington, D.C., and the stupidity of not appreciating our own bodies enough to take care of them without such additives as alcohol and drugs, including the legally prescribed drugstore variety.

He acknowledged that Richard Nixon might not be affected by his protest fast, and probably couldn't care less, but then again the feeling of concern was mutual. The Aunt Jemima ads came under attack, as well as the various police agencies, comparing all of them with the corruption found in an eastern city investigation. He pointed out that a stranger could come into a city and find someone to supply him with drugs in fifteen minutes, but that policemen living in the city for years didn't seem to have this much ability in finding such items.

Birth control, he said, should be directed toward the whites rather than the blacks, because there are already more whites than blacks.

His father was killed by a German soldier in World War II, and he was fatherless since the age of ten. He pointed out that the German who had killed his father could come to the United States and be accepted in communities where he himself would not be accepted.

The war in Ireland, according to Mr. Gregory, was a matter of much greater concern in America than the problems in Rhodesia, because the people being oppressed in Ireland were Catholics, whereas the people being suppressed in Rhodesia were just black.

He had a solution to the war. Quit buying products put out by, for example, General Motors. He said the head of G.M. would get up in the middle of the night on hearing such news, and would get Richard Nixon out of bed and tell him the facts of life and the war would be quickly ended so that G.M. sales would not be affected.

If you were not there you missed a very interesting talk.

The California Supreme Court has now abolished the death penalty as being unconstitutional. I sure wish they would also declare murder unconstitutional, and maybe when news reporters ask people's opinions on the decision they should also question the victims of the murderers. Of all the organizations involved in influencing such decisions, I think it would be nice if just one or at least somebody would express a little human concern for the victims of the crimes and for the families of such victims.

Did you realize that every one of our pay phones (and there are over 125,000 of them in California) now has a location card? You might ask why a pay phone would need an address, but sometimes knowing exactly where you're phoning from can prove to be important—like in an emergency when you have to call an ambulance, the police or the fire department. Or when someone is coming to pick you up and wants to know where you're calling from.
Putting location cards on pay phones is just one of the things we're doing to try to make them more useful to you.

Smart shoppers know how helpful the Yellow Pages can be when you're looking for a hard-to-find item. Without leaving your home you can get information on just about any product or service imaginable.
By reading the ads in the Yellow Pages or by calling the listed telephone numbers, you can find out store hours, credit arrangements, delivery services and much more.
The next time you're looking for an item that's hard to find, check the Yellow Pages before you leave home. You'll find whatever you're looking for—fast.

Do you know about the fast way to find the phone numbers of government offices? For your convenience, the Yellow Pages of the Monterey County phone book has a quick reference page containing the numbers of city, county, state, and federal offices that people call most frequently. Just look in the Yellow Pages under "G" for "Government Offices."

Nature Film To Be Shown

Photographer Bower E. Rudrud will present his nature film, "Treasure of East Africa" at the Pacific Grove Junior High School Auditorium on Thursday, March 2 at 8 p.m. This will be the fourth in the series of wildlife films being presented by the Monterey Peninsula Audubon Society and National Audubon Society.

Filmed in the plains and mountains of Kenya, Uganda and Tanzania, the film shows many of the animals for which this part of the world is famous -- elephants, lions, cheetahs, antelopes, zebras and giraffes, to name but a few. In one scene on the Serengeti Plains, the camera pans over some 140,000 animals in a single shot.

Admission to the film is $1.25, 50 cents for students and active military personnel.

Rt. #1 Will be Repaired

The funds required to correct Route 1 drainage deficiencies at eight Monterey County locations were allocated recently by the California Highway Commission during a business meeting held in Los Angeles.

All work sites are along an approximate 31 mile strech that begins near Big Sur and ends approximately a half mile south of Garrapata Creek. At six locations work will consist of replacing deteriorated piping.

The estimated cost of the work is $48,000.

The project was recommended for approval by Commissioner Robert Herdman of Solvang.

Sanford Carlisle Dies

Longtime Monterey Peninsula resident, Sanford Carlisle, died recently in the community Hospital. He had been hospitalized after a period of failing health.

Born in 1904 in Saginaw, Michigan, Mr. Carlisle was associated for many years with a tannery firm there which was founded by his grandfather.

Upon his retirement 18 years ago, he moved to the Peninsula, where he has been active as a volunteer worker with Alcoholic Anonymous groups.

Service were held February 17 at the Little Chapel-by-the-Sea. Reverend Arthur Cunningham of St. James Episcopal Church officiated at the services.

Datsun Tells 1972 Sales Projections

Speaking at a news briefing held in conjuction with the National Automobile Dealers Association Convention in Las Vegas, Robert O. Link forecast Datsun retail sales of 325,000 cars and trucks for 1972. Link, Vice President of Sales for the Nissan Motor Corporation in U.S.A. (the distributors of Datsun cars and trucks in the U.S.), indicated that this projection was up 27 percent ouver 1971 sales of 255,000 units.

"I have based my projection on what everyone feels will be an expanding automotive market with year-end totals reaching 10.5 to 11 million units," Link stated. "Imports are expected to achieve around 1.5 to 1.6 million of this total."

Link pointed out that the '71-72 projected sales increase of 27 percent (up 70,000 units) was less than the '70-'71 increase of 65 percent (up 100,000 units). "I see our increases leveling off gradually until we reach an eventual goal of 500,000 units a year in 1976," he added.

"We at Datsun are confident that both our distributor organization and our dealer organization have matured sufficiently to meet the increased sales challenges that lie ahead," Link continued.

"The first round of our regional facility expansion program should be complete in 1972 with the opening of our 10th facility and our dealer upgrading is progressing at a better than anticipated rate. We know that to sell any kind of car in any kind of volume you can't make excuses for your parts and service support. The importers that have strong parts and service capabilities will continue to do well and we at Datsun plan on being one of the strong ones," Link added.

In commenting on the size of the Datsun dealer organization, Link explained that during most of 1971 there was a moratorium on naming new dealers. "Our plans for 1972 call for a relaxation of that moratorium and a slight expansion of our dealer body that now numbers 922. We are examining our high-priority open points and will appoint strong dealers where the right opportunity to benefit our customers exists."

"It was a strong dealer body and solid distributor organization that helped us achieve our forecast in 1971 - even in spite of the dock strikes and loss of the price advantage. I am sure that this same organizational strength and solid product value combined with an increased sales effort will help Datsun achieve its sales goal in 1972," Link concluded.

BEAUTY QUEEN - Bobbie Blakeney, daughter of Mrs. Mattie Blakeney of Seaside, was named first runnerup in second annual Miss Black Heritage Pageant which took place recently at California State Polytechnic College, San Luis Obispo. Candidates for title were judged on basis of talent, fashions and awareness of black history. Miss Blakeney, sophomore economics major, presented pantomine as her talent selection.

MORE EFFICIENT

It is predicted that two dairy cows of the future will produce as much as three cows can today. Dairy farmer efficiency in operation accounts for this.

Church Services

Divine healing's place in prophecy will be examined Sunday at Christian Science church services.

"Christ Jesus" is the subject of the Bible Lesson-Sermon. It includes this text from Revelation: "The testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy."

Comentary from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy includes this citation: "The highest earthly representative of God, speaking of human ability to reflect divine power, prophetically said to his disciples, speaking not for their day only but for all time: 'He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also;!' and 'These signs shall follow them that believe.'"

Services at First Church of Christ, Scientist, Monterey, are conducted by Dr. B. Crandell Epps, the First Reader, and Mrs. Velna Slattery, the Second Reader. They begin at 10:30 a.m.

AT LAST A RECORD AND TAPE CLUB WITH NO "OBLIGATIONS"—ONLY BENEFITS!

Ordinary record and tape clubs make you choose from a few labels—usually their own! They make you buy up to 12 records or tapes a year—usually at list price—to fulfill your obligation. And if you forget to return their monthly card—they send you an item you don't want and a bill for $4.98, $5.98, $6.98, or $7.98! In effect, you may be charged almost double for your records and tapes.

BUT RECORD CLUB OF AMERICA ENDS ALL THAT!

We're the largest all-label record and tape club in the world. Choose any LP or tape (cartridges and cassettes), including new releases. No exceptions! Take as many, or as few, or no selections at all if you so decide. Discounts are GUARANTEED AS HIGH AS 79% OFF! You always save at least 33⅓%. You get best sellers for as low as 99¢.

NO AUTOMATIC SHIPMENTS

With our Club there are no cards which you must return to prevent shipment of unwanted LP's or tapes (which you would have to return at your own expense if you have failed to send written notice not to ship). We send only what you order.

HOW CAN WE BREAK ALL RECORD AND TAPE CLUB RULES?

We are the only major record and tape club NOT OWNED . . . NOT CONTROLLED . . . NOT SUBSIDIZED by any record or tape manufacturer anywhere. Therefore, we are not obliged by company policy to push any one label. Nor are we prevented by distribution commitments from offering the very newest LP's and tapes.

Join RECORD CLUB OF AMERICA now and take advantage of this special INTRODUCTORY MEMBERSHIP OFFER. Choose any 3 LP's or any 1 tape shown above (worth up to $20.94) and mail coupon with check or money order for $5.00 membership fee (a small handling and mailing fee for your free LP's or tapes will be sent later). This entitles you to LIFETIME MEMBERSHIP—and you never pay another club fee. Your savings have already MORE THAN MADE UP FOR THE NOMINAL MEMBERSHIP FEE.

LOOK WHAT YOU GET

- FREE Lifetime Membership Card — guarantees you brand new LP's and tapes at discounts up to 79% . . . Never less than ⅓ off.
- FREE Giant Master LP and Tape Catalog—lists 1000's of readily available LP's and tapes (cartridges and cassettes) of all labels.
- FREE Disc and Tape Guide—The Club's own Magazine, and special Club sale announcements which regularly bring you news of just-issued new releases and "extra discount" specials.
- FREE Any 3 Stereo LP's or any 1 Tape shown here (worth up to $20.94) with absolutely no obligation to buy anything ever)!

GUARANTEED INSTANT SERVICE

All LP's and tapes ordered by members are shipped same day received (orders from the Master Catalog may take a few days longer). ALL RECORDS AND TAPES GUARANTEED—factory new and completely satisfactory or replacements will be made without question.

MONEY BACK GUARANTEE

If you aren't absolutely delighted with our discounts (up to 79%)—return items within 10 days and membership fee will be returned AT ONCE! Join over one million budget-wise record and tape collectors now.

ALEPPO CHICKEN

Plan to serve chicken to your friends? This should be just the dish to delight them.

1 4-pound chicken (frying, roasting or stewing hen)
salt and pepper
1 lemon
6 small onions and 12 small carrots celery greens
1 or 2 gloves garlic
juice of half a lemon
1/4 cup sherry
3/4 cup chopped almonds
1 pound mushrooms
1 egg
1 cup cream

Rub the chicken with salt, pepper and lemon juice. Insert a piece of lemon peel in the inside of the bird. Boil with the vegetables in the usual manner and when cooked take the pan off the fire and, with a ladle, pour out about a pint of the stock into another pan. Add to this the juice of half a lemon, the sherry, the almonds and the previously sauteed mushrooms. When hot, pour stock spoon by spoon on the egg beaten up with the cream. When thick, put the chicken on a hot dish and pour the sauce over and around it. Serves six to eight.

To Mahalia Jackson

By Mrs. Nettie Hornsby

Your smile is worth a million bucks, your voice a million more,
Your friendship's worth its weight in gold and everyone should know That the world just stops a-spinning when you're singing on the air, Mockingbirds and nightingales
they just sit there and stare.
And they wonder what kind of bird you are,
If you were hatched out in this land,
Or flew in from afar.
And they'd be glad to met you and have you teach them how To raise their voice in splendor so they'd be swinging on a star.

And the electric lights in heaven
go on as bright as day,
And all the angels listen
and I can hear them say:
"What kind of bird is this I hear? Is its plumage red or blue?
It's not the golden eagle, America's symbol bird,
Because its voice is mighty sweet, the sweetest I have heard."

And we Black folks are happy because this bird is one of us,
And God gave Mahalia Jackson to the Black folks of this earth.
And her voice will be remembered
long after she has gone,
And the future generations will always hear her song.

VW Squareback Has Noteworthy Features

A new energy-absorbing steering wheel, larger and longer-lasting pads for the self-adjusting front disc brakes and new fingertip controls for the windshield washer-wiper head the list of improvements built into this year's Volkswagen's Squareback.

While its electronically-controlled fuel injection engine already placed the car among the "cleanest" on the road -- computers metering just the right amounts of gasoline depending upon road and load conditions -- engine modifications developed for the 1972 model reduce exhaust emissions to new lows.

ECOLOGICAL

In addition, engine compression ratio was lowered from 7.7 to 1 to a new 7.3 ratio to enable the car to run on standard grades of lead-free gasoline.

COLLAPSES

Most readily visible addition for 1972 model is the new energy-absorbing steering wheel which incorporates a four-inch-long perforated and collapsible hub to "soak up" so-called second collision forces in the event of a front-end impact.

In addition to the cannister-shaped hub, the steering wheel's center section is covered by heavy plastic which spreads second-impact shock across a wide area.

A safety "extra," the new steering wheel works in conjunction with VW steering columns which either absorb crash forces through planned collapse or, in the case of the Super Beetle, which fold away due to their special double-jointed, offset design.

REPRESENTATIVE - First Sergeant William F. Hensley of Company C, 5th Battalion, 3rd Brigade, was selected recently by command sergeants major of principal units on Fort Ord to represent post's many career soldiers at Seaside Chamber of Commerce banquet. "The career Soldiers" were named, as group, to be "Citizen of Year" for 1971 by chamber. Hensley accepted plaque from chamber on behalf of all career soldiers.

HONORED - Lieutenant Commander Craig Bradbury, (center) Aviation Safety Program instructor at Naval Postgraduate School, was presented special award by Rear Admiral A. Scott Goodfellow, (left) superintendent and District Scout Executive Lyman Grover recently. Award recognizes Lieutenant Commander Bradbury's participation and leadership in scouting program in Monterey Peninsula and Monterey Bay Area Council over past three years. Admiral Goodgellow, member of Boy Scout Council Executive Board, made presentation during 62nd anniversary week of Boy Scouts of America.

Don't pay until July 15.

Borrow $1500 or more from us now for whatever type of home improvement you have in mind, and you don't pay us a cent until July 15, 1972.

Build that new swimming pool, modernize your kitchen, renovate the den, add a bedroom—even replace your wall-to-wall carpeting. Do it now and you can enjoy your investment without payments for four, five or even six months depending on how soon you get things going.

Chances are you'll find it easier to line up a contractor at this time of year. If you wait until the season's in full swing, builders can get pretty busy.

Bank of America Home Improvement Loans offer a minimum of red tape, plus flexible terms and low monthly payments tailored to fit your budget.

Ask your contractor about Bank of America financing, or stop in and talk to the people at your nearby branch. The sooner you get started, the longer you won't have to pay.

Keino Sets Meet Record

Kip Keino of Kenya Olympic metric mile champion, won the 11-lap indoor mile in the All-American Games at the Cow Palace in San Francisco recently

His time exceeded the four-minute mile he had said he would try to break, but he did set a meet record of 4:01.2. His time was short of the Cow Palace record of 400.3 set by Jim Grelle of Multnomah AC in 1966.

Blues Artist Who Made Black History

"I'm not sure that her art did not reach beyond the limits of the term jazz," said John Hammond, the noted Caucasian expert on Black music.

His reference -- surely the understatement of the year of 1937 in which he made it -- was to Bessie Smith, whose singing represented a fusion of soul and technical perfection, to make her a vital part not only of Black history, not only of jazz history, not only of the history of her period, but of history. Period.

Mahalia Jackson is an example of an early Bessie Smith devotee. Janis Joplin is another. Billie Holiday is yet another.

Bessie Smith was born in 1896 according to most authorities. Between that time and 1937, the year she died, Bessie became the unquestioned "Empress of the Blues."

She made 160 records for Columbia. People are still being moved in 1972 by the songs she recorded in 1923. And that is really bridging the gap.

Her initial release in 1923 was of "Gulf Coast Blues" and on the so-called flip-side (except that in those days recordings were too heavy to flip) "Downhearted Blues."

Her last recordings made were "Gimme a Pigfoot" and "Take Me For a Buggy Ride."

That every single one of the 160 sides she cut has been rereleased is a tribute paid to no other American artist.

As Ralph Gleason has said, "Bessie made every one of them into a three-minute drama of life."

The drama of her own life drew to a close following an automobile accident, which happened near Clarksdale while she was on the way to some obscure gig in Mississippi. Her last days had been spent in shoddy dressing rooms of ghetto theaters, but to Bessie pleasing that waiting audience was the thing. She made her last appearance in New York City at a bistro, The Famous Door on 52nd Street.

In younger days, she had traveled with Ma Rainey, her predecessor as Blues Queen.

Bessie's records sold in the millions, at first almost exclusively to Blacks, then to the whites as her legend grew.

Everyone knows a Bessie Smith story or two. Some tell how Bix Beiderbecke threw a week's salary on the floor of a Chicago speakeasy, just to hear her sing one number.

It is often told how she blew her opportunity to become a Black Swan recording star at an audition. Just as she was about to sing, she is reported to have shouted to the musicians, "Hold it while I spit!" W. C. Handy's partner in Black Swan Records, Harry Pace, was utterly repulsed because Bessie spat right on his studio floor.

Hammond tells of her recording comeback in 1933:

"She refused point-blank to record the type of blues that had made her famous. Her argument was that people didn't want to be depressed by blues, that they wanted something in a jazz vein."

She received only $37.50 apiece for those last sides.

All of them were made for the one company, Columbia, or its subsidiary Okeh.

And that was Bessie Smith -- OK, eminently.

Law Is Explained

Divorced or separated parents planning to claim a child as a dependent on Federal income tax returns can avoid tax controversy by carefully reading the guidelines, R. F. Harless, District Director of the Internal Revenue Service for Northern California, said recently.

Generally, the parent with custody of the child for the greater part of the year is entitled to the dependency deduction. There may be exceptions to this rule, depending on the terms of the decree and the amount contributed to the child's support by the parent who does not have custody, Harless said.

Northern California taxpayers can get a free copy of the guidelines by sending a post card to the district office at 450 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco 94102. Ask for Publication 501.
